

Question 5:

1. All members don't have a member type, so a default member type must be given for such members.
2. Special events purchases don't record zip and email of customer, so these values need to be recorded from the customer.
3. Special events customers from the spreadsheet do not have any franchise or member type. Default franchise and member type must be given to these such rows.